

William H. Cavendish and James Jordon – 2085 acres in Greenbrier County

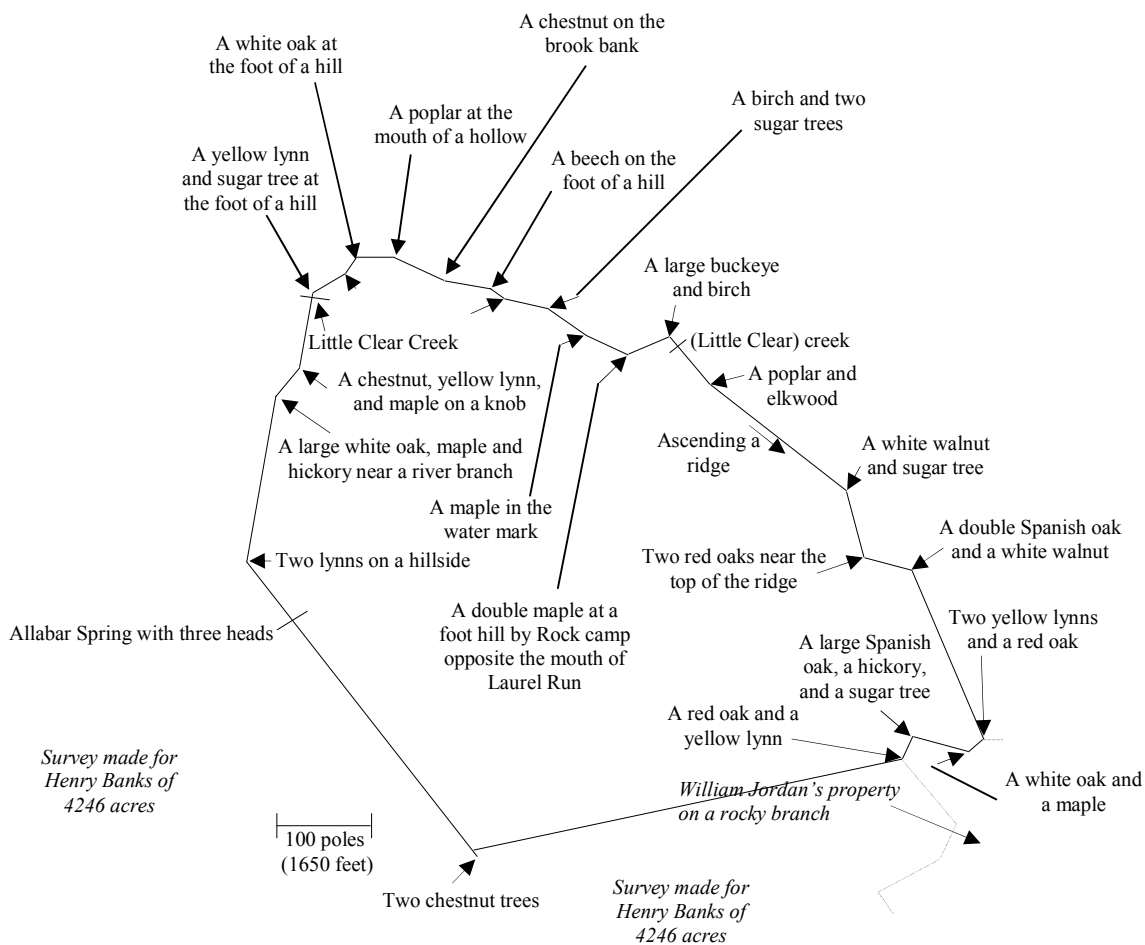

History

January 24, 1783	Warrant number 158 issued for 809 acres
December 11, 1793	Warrant number 556 issued for 446 acres
December 25, 1794	Warrant number 1021 issued for 830 acres
April 20, 1796	Date of Survey
January 26, 1800	Patented by James Monroe, Governor of Virginia
April 30, 1800	Patent delivered to Col "Jn" White
March 27, 1820	Jordan's share sold to James Knight for $1; deed recorded in Cabell County

Description

2085 acres in Greenbrier County on the waters of Little Clear Creek and Laurel Run including the forks of said Creek and Run and along Buffalo Lick and joining the land of Henry Banks and William Jordon; 1820 deed described it as the Laurel Run and Buckeye Garden on Little Clear Creek.

and black oak, and leave the same. North Eighty degrees East twenty four poles to two chestnuts, North forty one degrees East ninety six poles to a white oak, and maple. North ten degrees West Seventy six poles, to white oak and black oak. North Seventy degrees East forty two poles to a white oak and spanish oak. North four degrees East Seventy six poles to two white oaks. North twenty eight degrees West Sixty four poles to two white oaks and a cedarwood. North Seventy six poles to two white oaks, North thirty eight degrees West thirty six poles to three white oaks. North Eighty five degrees West Eighty poles to three white oaks at the foot of knolls, thence South twenty six degrees West ninety four poles to the beginning with its appurtenances. To have and to hold the said tract or parcel of land with its appurtenances to the said Joseph Haynes and his heirs forever. In Witness whereof the said James Monroe Esquire Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia hath hereunto set his hand and caused the lesser seal of the said Commonwealth to be affixed at Richmond on the twenty sixth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and of the Commonwealth the twenty fourth.

James Monroe.

Mr H. Cavendish
and
James Gordon
2005. Acres
Greenbrier
and also to
Col. J. P. White
Sept 30. 1800

James Monroe Esquire Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting Know Ye That by virtue of three warrants to wit, four hundred hundred and forty six acres part of Warrant Number five hundred and fifty six, issued the Eleventh day of December Seventeen hundred and ninety three, Eight hundred and thirty acres, part of a Number one thousand and twenty one. Issued the twenty fifth day of December Seventeen hundred and ninety four, and the residue being eight hundred and nine acres, by part of an Exchanged Warrant Number one hundred and fifty eight issued the twenty fourth of January one thousand seven hundred and Eighty three. There is Granted by the said Commonwealth unto William M. Cavendish and James Jordan. A certain part or parcel of land containing two thousand and Eighty five acres by Survey bearing date the twentieth day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety six, lying and being in the County of Greenbrier, on the waters of Little Clear Creek, and Laurel run including the forks of said Creek and run, and a large buffalo lick, and turning the land of Henry Banks, and William Brown and bounded as followeth to wit, beginning at two Chesnut corner to a Survey made for Henry Banks of four thousand two hundred and forty six acres and running with the same North thirty eight degrees West four hundred poles, passing Allabar Spring with three heads at three hundred and twenty poles to two firs on hill side; and leaving Banks thence North ten degrees East one hundred and Eighty poles to a large white oak maple and hickory near a branch, North forty degrees East forty poles to a Chesnut yellow lynn and maple on a side.

 North ten degrees East Eighty poles crossing Little Clear Creek at Seventy four poles to yellow lynn and sugar tree at foot the hill North.

North Sixty degrees East forty poles to two white oaks near the corner and a meadow, North thirty five degrees East twenty poles to white oak foot hill East forty poles to a poplar at the mouth of a hollow South Sixty five degrees East fifty eight poles to a chestnut on the brook bank, South Eighty degrees East fifty poles to beech on foot the hill, South ^{off} four degrees East Eighteen poles to a double maple in a bottom, South Seventy seven degrees East forty eight poles to a bunch and ^{two} Sugar trees, South fifty five degrees East forty eight poles to a maple in the water mark, South Sixty five degrees East fifty poles to double maple foot hill by back camp, opposite the mouth of Laurel run, North Sixty seven degrees East forty six poles, a large buckeye and birch, South forty degrees East Sixty six poles crossing the brook ^{at} ten poles, to poplar and Elmwood, South fifty two degrees East one hundred and Eighty four poles up a ridge to white walnut and Sugar tree, South fifteen degrees East twenty two poles to two red oaks near the top of ridge, South Seventy five degrees East fifty two poles to double spanish oak and white walnut, South twenty three degrees East one hundred and ninety six poles to two yellow lumps and red oak, corner to William Jordan on the East side a rocky branch and runs with the same, thence South fifty degrees West twenty poles to white oak and maple, North Seventy five degrees West Sixty poles to a large Spanish oak hickory and Sugar tree, and South twenty five degrees West twenty six poles to a red oak and yellow lynn corner to the same
 and

and leaving Locan, and runs with a line of Banks Survey of eight hundred and fifteen acres South Seventy eight degrees West four hundred and sixty eight poles, ^{to the two chemists} to the beginning with its appurtenances To have and to hold the said tract or parcel of land with its appurtenances to the said William Wharvendish and James Locan and their heirs for ever. In witness whereof the said James Monroe Esquire Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia hath herunto set his hand and caused the lesser seal of the said Commonwealth to be affixed at Richmond, on the twenty sixth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and of the Commonwealth the twenty fourth.

James Monroe

Joseph Haynes
90 acres
Greenbrier
(R and deliv)
John White
10000

James Monroe Esquire Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia To all to whom these presents shall come Greeting Know Ye That by virtue of part of a Land office Treasury Warrant Number eight thousand three hundred and two Issued the second day of April Seventeen hundred and Eighty two, There is Granted by the said Commonwealth unto Joseph Haynes A certain tract or parcel of land containing ninety acres by Survey bearing date the first day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety three, lying and being in the County of Greenbrier in the Links adjoining the lands of Brice Miller, William Craig, John Fisher, and his own land, and bounded as followeth to wit

beginning